

Please do not further loosen the restrictions on profanity and sex on television programming that is often accessed, regrettably, by unsupervised children. Television is already contributing heavily to the decline of all things decent in this country. As a minister, I will encourage everyone at the congregation where I preach to drop their television subscriptions if these lower standards are enacted. Please do what you can to protect, not further harm, the children of this great nation.